

SAY
NEW NORMAL
ONE MORE TIME...
I DARE YOU

Hi there,

Join Trident and Aruba as we unwrap the year that was and help you prepare for the year to come! We're excited to finally be able to come together again to catch up, enjoy a meal together and hear from some special guest speakers.

Let's unpack the unprecedented times of pivoting to the next new normal, bump elbows, come off mute and deep dive into cutting-edge technology.

Sick of the buzzwords yet?

Together, we'll unwrap the lingo, sharing real stories from real people just like you and me.

REGISTER NOW

10.30am – 3.00pm
Tuesday 7th
December 2021

The Prince Hotel
2 Acland St
St Kilda VIC \(map\)

REGISTER NOW

Note: The venue requires all attendees to have a valid vaccination certificate upon entry.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- Insights from John Hendry about high performance, Resilient Mindsets and the critical importance of quality relationships in developing high performing and resilient cultures
- Tim Humphries from Homestyle Aged Care will share their digital transformation story
- Expert tips from Aruba's team of specialists
- Good company, good food and a good time!

THE SPEAKERS

John Hendry (OAM)

John Hendry (OAM) has been an educator for over 50 years. He is a promoter of positive education and of the importance of establishing and maintaining a quality relationship driven organisational environment. He has a long involvement with the development of culture in education institutions, sporting teams, and in the corporate world. He is a champion of the importance of forgiveness, kindness, compassion and gratitude in the building of relationships, in a world that is comprised of and defined by relationships between individuals.

Tim Humphries B.Com (Flinders), CPA, MBA (Deakin) Chief Executive Officer, Homestyle Aged Care

Tim is the CEO of Homestyle Aged Care a role he has held for almost 8 years and has over 19 years of health experience including 16 years within aged care. Prior to Homestyle Tim was CEO of Provider Assist, a large aged care consulting service. With extensive business experience he has held roles within finance - up to CFO, IT up to CIO, Project manager, Recruitment and CEO most recently; across a wide variety of industries within privately owned, publicly listed and not for profit organisations.

Tim is currently Chairman of the board of directors for the Australian Centre for the Prevention of Cervical Cancer and also sits on the board of Prestige Inhome Care.

SECURE YOUR PLACE TODAY

REGISTER NOW

Note: The venue requires all attendees to have a valid vaccination certificate upon entry.

a Hewlett Packard
Enterprise company